

Using Primo

Primo searches resources in the library (print books and journals, DVDs, etc.) and most of our online resources (ebooks and academic databases).

Access Primo from myeit.eit.ac.nz

Primo is a good place to start, but if you need a more comprehensive selection of resources, you will find these in the Subject Guides.

Search for topic keywords or the title and/or author of a resource you are trying to find.

Use the drop down menu if you want to restrict results to items in the library.

social media marketing X / All Resources ▼ 🔍 ADVANCED SEARCH

If your results are off topic, rethink the keywords you are using.

Are they too broad or too narrow? Is there subject specific terminology you could use?

Are there alternative terms that could be used? E.g. adolescents instead of teenagers.

Search Tips

- Two or more word phrases can be put in speech marks for more accurate results.
E.g. "social media"
- To include synonyms in your search, use OR and brackets.
E.g. "social media" (teenagers OR adolescents)
